GRANT POLICIES

About us
The Women’s and Girls’ Fund is a leadership initiative of Kern Community Foundation. We seek to transform the lives of women and girls in Kern County by mobilizing the power and passion of women working together. In particular, we EDUCATE to create awareness of women’s and girls’ needs unmet by current strategies; we ENDOW a permanent fund whose annual yield supports programs benefiting women and girls; and we EMPOWER one another and our girls to become philanthropists and advocates of positive social change.

Our grant-making philosophy
The Women’s and Girls’ Fund values social change grant-making that focuses on long-term solutions to societal problems facing women and girls in all parts of Kern County. We believe that when women and girls prosper, communities thrive.

Our focus for 2016-2020 grants - Education
The Women’s and Girls’ Fund prioritizes requests designed to increase passion and enthusiasm for learning while addressing issues pertaining to Educational Attainment:

Grades K-8
- Increase the percentage of girls scoring in the “advance/proficient” level on the California Standardized Test or equivalent test.
- Increase literacy including educational success for English learners.
- Encourage interest in STEM fields of study.

Grades 9-12
- Increase the percentage of girls scoring in the “advance/proficient” level on the California Standardized Test or equivalent test.
- Decrease need for remediation in math, English, and reading in college.
- Improve success in A-G course requirements for college readiness.
- Increase the graduation rate from high school.
- Increase literacy including educational success for English learners.
- Provide vocational training with an emphasis on living-wage occupations.
- Provide opportunity for success in STEM fields of study.

Post-high school/adult education
- Increase the graduation rate from college.
- Provide opportunity for success in STEM fields of study.
- Provide vocational training with an emphasis on living-wage occupations.
- Increase literacy
The 2015 Report on the Status of Women and Girls in Kern County also indicates that employers want employees prepared for success. Success in work, life, and education requires certain soft skills. We will consider grants designed to foster a strong work ethic; reliability and dependability; a positive attitude; being self-motivated; skills in problem-solving, time-management, and communication; self-confidence; and the ability to work in a team structure.

We value the direct-service work provided by Kern nonprofits and will consider funding these efforts. However, we are most interested in and will give prime consideration to efforts that:

- address root causes of problems faced by women and girls
- go beyond providing direct services to create underlying and sustainable social change for women and girls as a group
- explore new approaches to solving an issue when status quo has limited effect
- ensure sustainable impact beyond the year that grant monies are received
- cause shifts in individual/community behaviors
- increase skills and/or access to resources for constituents, propelling them to self-sufficiency
- produce leadership from the constituency most directly affected
- have the capacity for impact that extends beyond the women and girls immediately involved in the project
- provide potential for replication to multiple sites/communities
- develop ongoing collaboration between the applicant organization and other organizations in the community.

Who may apply
As a field of interest fund of the Kern Community Foundation, we comply with the Foundation’s grant-making guidelines. Organizations should have a 501(c)(3) nonprofit designation or fiscal agent. All organizations seeking funds must have a presence in Kern County and all programs must benefit women or girls within Kern County.

Funding is typically for one year only. Multi-year grant requests may be considered, but applicant should also be prepared to accept one year’s funding only. All requested follow-up reports for previous grants from the Foundation (including The Women’s and Girls’ Fund) must be on file before an agency can apply for additional funding.

Nonprofits submitting full applications should have their organizational profile online at Kern Community Foundation’s Nonprofit Search. Contact the Foundation for more information and assistance.
The Women’s and Girls’ Fund will not provide grants to: individuals, political campaigns, one-time events, capital fund drives, litigation, programs inconsistent with non-discrimination statutes, religious causes, endowments, reimbursements, scholarships, businesses or for-profit organizations, government agencies except public school districts (although we prefer to grant to a foundation associated with the district), programs that do not specifically address the needs of Kern County women or girls, or any organization that limits options.

Expectations of grant recipients
Grant recipients will sign a fund agreement with Kern Community Foundation before grant monies are delivered. Grant recipients will be expected to complete interim and final evaluations of their program’s outcomes. Forms will be provided. One half of the entire grant amount will be provided upon the Foundation’s receipt of a signed fund agreement. The second half of the grant amount will be provided upon the Foundation’s receipt of the interim evaluation of the program being funded.

A representative from the grant-winning organization should plan to attend the spring luncheon of The Women’s and Girls’ Fund, where the award will be made.

Publicity around the grant award is encouraged. Any promotional materials, press releases, etc., produced in connection with the grant award should note that the grant was funded by The Women’s and Girls’ Fund of Kern Community Foundation. If needed, the logo of The Women’s and Girls’ Fund and the Foundation will be supplied. Copies of any printed materials and photographs should be shared with the Foundation.
