

January 2019

The Women's and Girls' Fund is seeking community nominations for the 2019 Judi McCarthy Young Women's Philanthropy Award.

If you know of a deserving young lady between 16 and 21 years of age, who meets the following criteria, please consider nominating her for this highly-regarded award by February 25, 2019. This is not a monetary scholarship but a prestigious award for outstanding philanthropic community service.

The Young Woman Philanthropy Criteria

- Nominee must be 16 to 21 years old and be eligible for extra-curricular activities if attending school.
- Nominee must have demonstrated a philanthropic spirit through personal giving and/or leadership in inspiring others to support charitable organizations.
- Nominee should have a focus on seeking solutions to a problem rather than easing the symptoms.
- Nominee should exhibit a commitment to and a passion for bettering the lives of Kern County residents.

In addition to the completed nomination form, a personal summary about the nominee that addresses the nomination criteria including examples of how the nominee has helped improve the quality of life in Kern County is required. Please do not send a resume, verification of submitted information is routinely confirmed.

Please email completed forms by the deadline date of Monday, February 25, 2019 to irmielancaster@gmail.com or mail/fax to:

Nomination Review Process

The Judi McCarthy Women's Philanthropy Award Selection Committee will review all nominations and select the recipient by early March. The award will be presented at the Women's & Girls' Fund Annual Luncheon on May 2, 2019. The committee is responsible for the final selection. (In the unlikely event that the committee feels that no nominees have met the criteria, the award may be withheld.)
